— RESTAURANT & CAFÉ —

MR EDDY - EDMUND DE ROTHSCHILD

THE HISTORY BEHIND THE NAME

Edmund was born into the famous Rothschild banking family in 1916. He was the eldest son of Lionel de Rothschild, who first created Exbury Gardens. During the Second World War the gardens fell into disrepair and it was Edmund who, after returning from active service, devoted himself for over 50 years to the restoration and development of these magnificent gardens and who first opened them to the public in 1955. Mr Eddy's Café and restaurant is named in honour of him and the Rothschild family are still actively involved in the management and development of the gardens to this day.
